Hi- the second para references the cost benefit rule and I added a line to capture transparency. See below.

Subject: Question re: presidential memo on scientific integrity

Hello,

I'm covering President Biden's presidential memo on scientific integrity today and was hoping EPA can provide comment regarding how the agency expects the directive to "make evidence-based decisions guided by the best available science and data" to affect the previous administration's science transparency rule.

Can EPA comment on whether that rule and any others dealing with the use of science – like the recent Clean Air Act cost-benefit rule – will be reviewed under the new administration?

I'm aiming to file on this by 2:30 p.m. ET.

Thanks for your help.
